EDUCATION EXPENSES POLICY

This Policy applies to Members of Executive, any NE subcommittees, including Coach Developers, Coaching Staff and Referee Commission.

In spirit of fairness and financial efficiency Individuals seeking funding support from the NGB will be expected to exhaust any other funding opportunity such as may exist within and is available within their own Local Sport Partnership, any other state or charitable organisations supporting Development in Sport, Women in Sport or similar. Proof of applications will be expected as part of any application for funding from the NGB.

Any application for funding will be considered on the following grounds:

1. Individual's current position and the necessity of the course funding sought for,
2. Individual's record of courses and events attended, including pass rates.
3. Individual's engagement on regional, National and International level, where relevant
4. Events pending in the upcoming calendar year necessitating attendance with the National squad
5. Events pending in the Upcoming calendar year and representation necessary by member of the Referee Council and/or panel
6. Individual's ability and commitment to travel in the given capacity (coach/referee)

All payments are discretionary, subject to the approval of the National Executive and available funding.

Applications should be submitted to the O.N.A.K.A.I. secretary 14 days prior to fees becoming due or start of the course whichever falls first. Application Form [here – please link up for website]
